Looking Glass...*

PROLOGUE

Three years ago we began our journey through Melrose High School. We entered as innocent sophomores, faced with unfamiliar surroundings, new teachers and strange faces.

In the ensuing years we overcame what seemed to be insurmountable obstacles, made many new friends, and came to know and appreciate our teachers.

Our years at Melrose High School have given us more than an education. They have enriched us with experiences and memories that we will cherish forever. In addition, our school years have opened the door to the future, and have prepared us to handle the challenges we may meet.

As you turn the pages of this book, reflect on the past, look into the future, and go through the looking glass.

MR. EDWARD C.
BARRY
1928-1979

"A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops."

- Henry Adams

To those of us who came under the influence of Mr. Barry, his loss was dearly felt. He was, above all, a man who was committed to the principle that his students always came first. What was best for us took precedence in every decision Mr. Barry made.

We probably will never be able to accurately measure what his contributions to us have meant, but we will be forever appreciative of them.

It is, therefore, with honor and affection that we, the members of the Class of 1980, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Edward Barry. May his high standards and his devotion to duty serve as an inspiration to those who follow.

Dear Class of '80':

Thank you for allowing me to write a short note expressing my appreciation to you for a job well done. Needless to say, a school is dependent on its senior class to set the tone for its academic and social behavior. Over the past year, the class of '80 has contributed significantly to the successful operation of the school. This feeling is shared by those who have had the privilege of working with you.

It is my hope that your experiences here at Melrose High School will serve you in the future no matter what endeavor you may choose. It would be difficult at this time, to fully assess what you have gained personally over the past three years, but I remain confident that in the future, your decisions and attitudes will reflect the humanitarian philosophy of your school.

I wish each of you a productive and satisfying future. You have made many people proud but most of all I feel you have gained the self-esteem and confidence necessary to participate in and make a contribution to the world. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Claude H. Croston, Principal

The Student Government is an important part of Melrose High School. Broken down into three parts, Student Congress, Class Officers and the Financial Board, the government is a group of students who work to let the student voice be heard and to organize and implement activities and projects throughout the school year.

Services which the Congress has initiated include: Sophomore Guidance Orientation, Sophomore handbook and changing of study hall procedures.

This year the Congress organized the Powderpuff football game, a Christmas party for 600 elderly residents of Melrose, a student activities sign-up period, elections and other services and projects.

Class Officers, a major part of the Student Government, plan many activities including the Junior and Senior proms, Class Day and many fund-raising activities.

The Financial Board is made up of two sophomores, two juniors and three seniors. Meetings are held in Mr. Croston's office on Mondays, when necessary. This board allocates and votes on funds allotted to various clubs and activities within the school that are in need of money. The Board is advised by the Student Advisors and Mr. Croston.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In a candlelight induction ceremony, 61 members of the class of 1980 were added to the ranks of the Honor Society. During the ceremony each member pledged to perpetuate the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The members helped to make Parent-Teacher Night a success by showing parents the way around the school. The tutoring program for junior and senior high students proved helpful and rewarding. These accomplishments were achieved by the dedication of Miss Norwood and the hard work of the members.

CHESS CLUB

P. Degnan, K. Tucker, J. Fox, M. Maccario, K. Simonelli, M. Petti, Mr. Studley.

In its first year under its new advisor, Mr. Studley, the Chess Club got off to a slow start. With only one veteran player, Nick Agretelis, the Club suffered a disheartening loss to Peabody. After many afternoons of diligent practice, however, the Club rallied to a decisive win over Masconomet and an encouraging victory over Lynnfield. The Chess Club even improved their record enough to qualify for the league playoffs, something last year's team was unable to do.

What team goes to Amherst by way of New Hampshire? The MHS Debate Team, of course. The team defended its second-place state title by holding pizza parties, ping-pong tournaments, yoga sessions, and roller skating. Memories include: the Artic tournament, the Lexington "mutes", purple worms at "Motel Six", Truth and Dare at 3 a.m., U. Mass in log cabins, the M.C. blob, home from Suffolk in 3 hours, the $20 pin-ball machine, Davy Crockett, pressing weights at New England's, the everlasting choruses of "DRINK"; If you want directions, ask FIF, B.B. or J.P. Under the expert coaching of our fearless leader, FTF, the MHS Debate Softball Team will be ready to take on any challenger this spring.

¡Arriba los Españoles! The Spanish Club started the year with a great volleyball game against the French Club. This year we were ready. After 16 games, the score was tied 8-8. Although we didn't win in a rematch, spirits still ran high. ¡Que pena! Better luck next year, gang!

The Club rounded off the year with a successful and fun International Christmas Party which featured games, skits, songs and great food, an end of the year dinner and other activities including the enthusiastic sale of candles. We would like to thank Miss Galante and Mr. Riccio for making it a great year!

All students interested in joining the French Club should meet tomorrow at 2:30 in Rm 246. "Where's room 246?"

After everyone located the new room and ties were broken plans were made to begin another busy year. With over fifty enthusiastic members the club began the year by inviting German exchange students and their hosts to a volleyball game. This prepared the club for the annual French vs. Spanish volleyball game, which ended with the French defending their title. Later the group celebrated a Joyeux Noel (complete with Pierre Noel) at the International Christmas Party held in the Cafe.

The traditional dessert party was held at a member's home, complete with mousse au chocolat and other fattening desserts. Two French plays and the year-end banquet rounded out the busy year.

Memories include: numerous ties, French frog power, "brief meetings", posters, Killing the Spanish (again!), food, but on a Saturday night?, and of course merci, Madame Dooley, we couldn't have done it without you!!!

The determined French and the Spanish challengers met in the gym on November 20, 1979, for the second annual French vs Spanish Club Volleyball Game that would decide this year's champion. Three weeks before, the two teams had battled each other, only to end in a tie. So with the French defending the title and the Spaniards trying to secure it for the first time, an exciting game could be expected.

Both teams played confidently and well. Showing their strength in height, the Spaniards came close to capturing the crucial final game. But the spirited French team played to a decisive victory shutting out the diminished opposition in the end.

For the second year in a row, the French Club has asserted its strength. Better luck next year, Spaniards!

The German-American Partnership Program (GAPP) is the official name of our club and its chief function is the fostering of our biannual student exchange with Hamburg, Germany. This program affords American and German high school students the opportunity to broaden their knowledge of English and German in their respective countries and to stimulate their understanding and respect of different life styles, cultures and problems of the partner country.

In October 1979, Melrose High School was visited for 4 weeks by 19 German students. In April 1980, 19 Melrose students will go to Germany, live for 4 weeks with German families and attend a German school. This is the third exchange between Melrose and Hamburg.

THE ITALIAN CLUB

The Italian Club is formed by motivated and fun-loving students interested in combining pleasure with learning. Various fund-raising activities, holiday celebrations, dinner parties, films, trips to places of interest, including a very enjoyable winter evening carolling around Melrose number among our activities. For the immediate future, plans include plenty more fun adventures, including playing bocce and a trip abroad. We wish to congratulate Miss Dominijanni for a successful first year of teaching and as an advisor for the club. Arriverderci!

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

There was a lot of "shooting" at Melrose High this year. Armed with 35-mm cameras and film, members of the photography club practised their "marksmanship" on anything that stood in their way. They experimented with a wide variety of techniques in using photography as a mode of expression and art. Members concentrated on improving their skills and in developing and printing film in the school's well-equipped darkroom after school. The more successful members had some of their prints displayed in the Resource Center. Such "exposure" served as an encouragement for more advanced work.

GENESIS

Although the major problem of the members of Genesis, the schools art and literary magazine, was their own apathy, some of them did have the morale to have a bake sale in the cafetorium, with the hopes of raising money for their two publications this year. (They raised a grand total of twenty-two dollars.) The members, with the help of their advisor, Ms. Plume, assemble a magazine consisting of stories, essays, poetry, artwork and photography, submitted by talented MHS students.

The Modern Dance Club, made up of an active group of dancers, staged two shows during the year. The Winter show featured a variety of popular songs while the Spring show featured music from Broadway productions.

The girls needed no dancing experience, although it was helpful. Officers lead warm-up sessions for all the club members where new dance steps were taught and the girls worked on their dances for the shows. Either individually or in groups, the girls chose the music, choreographed the steps, and made their own costumes. When the rehearsals, work, and costumes were finished, the performers proved entertaining and successful.

DRAMA

The Melrose High School Drama Club is composed of the talented actors and actresses of our student body. The members completed another successful season with their play "The Hollow," a suspenseful mystery. Both the actors and stage crew deserve recognition for their fine performances, and we anticipate professional performances by some of the more talented members on our movie screens! A special thanks to Mrs. Cornelia Belliveau from the whole crew.

POWDER

This year's lottery system brought about a rival between Red Fury and White Lightning. After being postponed several times the game was played in a cold November. Red Fury pulled away with an early lead, but White Lightning streaked past Red Fury with a 30-16 final. The highlight of the game occurred when Tia Vinchesi ran in for her third touchdown, to clinch the victory for White Lightning.

The crowd enjoyed the cheers and performances of THE most beautiful cheerleaders around. They appeared dressed in everything from hot pink dresses to sweatshirts and miniskirts.

Both teams were supported by a capable staff of coaches.

JAZZMATAZZ

We will never forget the good (and strange) times we've had together, especially after the Pops concerts — at the Wakefield gazebo in '78 and at Rita's house in '79. "Remember you're a select group people" we need more rehearsals - "O.K., rehearsal at my house Monday night" A concert in 3 weeks?! We'll never be ready! "Does anyone have a black skirt I can borrow?" We will always remember Mr. Mess' for everything he gave us and taught us. He was always there when that Mood Indigo struck. "Love is gay? I'm not gonna sing that!" Most of all "Solitude" just "Don't Mean a Thing" as we look down that "Lonesome Road" to the future because we will have these "Moments to Remember."

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is structured for the extensive study of all styles of classical and modern music repertoire. Emphasis is placed on the development of performing skills at college level, as evidenced by our graduates being accepted into college musical organizations. Continuous annual representation of Melrose students by competitive audition at the M.N.E.A. sponsored Northeast District and Massachusetts All-State Festivals. Locally, the school orchestra performs for many school and civic functions.

The Mountaineering Club focused on three major activities: camping, hiking and rock climbing. Several outings were conducted in the White Mountains with all the peaks of the Southern Presidential Range being reached. Rock climbing was done at Artist's Bluff in the Franconia Range and also at the Quincy Quarry, a familiar crag in suburban Boston. At all times, high priorities were placed upon safety in wilderness travel, group cooperation and support, and an appreciation for the power and delicacy of the mountain environment. Probably the most popular activity was rock climbing which many of the members took up with great enthusiasm.

ART CLUB

The Art Club was established as a portfolio workshop for those students who want to pursue an art career as well as those interested in art as a hobby. Members participated in art school seminars, where portfolio presentations were made by people currently in art school. Colleen Singleton and Jennifer Young were the most active members in after school work sessions.

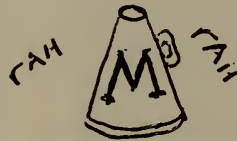

The most memorable events were: the two caravans to the Globe Scholastic Art Awards Exhibit to see the work of two members, Lisa Schmidt and Tom Sheehan, who won gold keys in the show. Members who were not present at the time that the picture was taken are Ann DiGiovanni, Marybeth Egan, Tom Sheehan, Scott Goodwin, Lisa Solano, Monica Butt and Ellen Stanton.

"We've got spirit, and we've got pride . . ." In early September, the Pep Club began to arouse school spirit, making bright, original decorations for the first pep rally and livening up the bleak cafeteria walls with oversized football players, field-hockey players, cheerleaders, and a coach.

With the help of Ms. O'Brien, the club kept busy with the annual candy sale, the pep rallies, the Halloween Party, the first annual Spirit Day, Christmas party, and the Senior Athletic Banquet.

Infusing their own enthusiasm into their efforts, the Pep Club succeeded in bringing more spirit to Melrose High activities.

Never forget! Snow Ralph . . . "Is this the right house?" . . . "He's already at the game!" . . . "But I can't draw!" . . . "Who are all these kids anyway?" . . . Rally — this afternoon!?!

Members of the Melrose High School Ski Club, along with most of the skiers in the northeast, were plagued during the winter of 1979-1980, by a frustrating lack of snow. Club members with their advisor Mr. Haley, planned optimisitically all fall for trips to Jay's Peak and other New England areas. The departure dates for these trips arrived as scheduled, but, alas, the snow didn't, and many of the trips were cancelled. The group lost none of its enthusiasm though, and the eventual invasion of Jay's Peak by the Melrose students was a great success.

WHICH TYPE ARE YOU?

There are basically two types of students at any high school. There is the well-groomed, conscientious, organized and prepared student; and then there is, well, the "other kind." The first type wakes up in the morning even before the alarm goes off, jumps into the shower, and is ready for school fifteen minutes ahead of time. The second type flies into a rage at the sound of the alarm and flinging his arm he sends the clock crashing into the wall. This student proceeds to stay in bed until 7:45 and spends the final minutes running madly around his house trying to get ready for school.

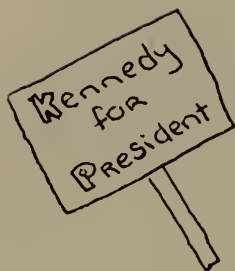

One can easily distinguish between these two types as they walk to school. The conscientious student wears a warm winter coat, a hat, brown leather gloves and carries his books neatly at his side. The "other student" jogs down the street with his coat unzipped and flying in the breeze. He munches on a piece of toast that he carries in his left hand and combs his hair with his right. Even though it is only 15° he wears no hat or gloves; and, of course, his books are safely stored in his locker.

In homeroom the conscientious student calmly sits in his chair with his books in front of him well before the 8:10 bell — I mean "beep." He rises with the rest of the third floor open space and recites the Pledge of Allegiance; He then passes to his first period class with a pen, a pencil and the proper notebook. Your friend, and mine, is lucky if he even makes it to homeroom at all. If he does arrive on time he usually has to beg his homeroom teacher not to mark him late. Catching his breath and moving with the crowd through the corridor, he speaks those familiar words, "Has anybody got an extra pen or pencil?"

HAPPINESS

Happiness is like a crystal,
Fair and exquisite and clear,
Broken in a million pieces,
Shattered, scattered far and near.
Now and then along life's pathway,
Lo! Some shining fragments fall;
But there are so many pieces
No one ever finds them all.

You may find a bit of beauty,
Or an honest share of wealth,
While another just beside you
Gathers honor, love or health.
Vain to choose or grasp unduly,
Broken is the perfect ball;
And there are so many pieces
No one ever finds them all.

Yet the wise as on they journey
Treasure every fragment clear,
Fit them as they may together,
Imaging the shattered sphere,
Learning ever to be thankful,
Though their share of it is small;
For it has so many pieces
No one ever finds them all.

—Priscilla Leonard

The students of MHS "got the spirit" this year by becoming sport enthusiasts. It was a rewarding experience for anyone who witnessed these fans cheering their teams on to victory.

Waiting in Methuen for the field hockey quarter-finals to start the players could hear, off in the distance, the cheering of the Melrose High fans. They arrived banging on the roof of the bus, chanting "we're number one !" En masse they marched toward the bleachers armed with banners and bugles. All the while they continued to chant "We are the b-e-s-t."

At half time, the fans paraded onto the field for an amusing show which included cheers, a miniature band, and the formation of a human pyramid. After the victory, the exuberant spectators followed the players to the locker room singing "we are proud of you . . ." The Field Hockey team, in turn, never failed these faithful followers.

This new found spirit was carried through to all sports. Even though many of the football games were played on cold rainy days, the bleachers were continually crammed with Melrose people. Although no buses were provided for away games, students were not deterred. They arrived in carloads. This was especially true at the Thanksgiving Day game, where alumni and students came to root for the Raiders. The enthusiasm did not stop there because every team had its share of support. It did not matter whether they won, lost, or tied, for the Raider pride never died.

The class of 1980 hopes that this new found spirit will continue and grow throughout the decade at MHS.

Although the season was frustrating, the good times made up for the disappointments. Coach Whitworth and Captain Deb Cronin were always there to offer their support and encouragement.

The season may be over, but the memories live on: Ralph . . . State '78 . . . Prince . . . 1-9 . . . Bruises . . . Swimmers don't do those things. It's hard to believe it's over. Seniors: Shereen and her 13th in the States; Kathy did her first "500" free; Nancy hated the backstroke; but Jean loved it. Jill and Ellen hated practice; Deb could do without the breaststroke and the Captain could do without the grief. Sophomore, Beth Fuller and the Captain-Elects, Stacey Doherty and Sheila Fennell should carry the team. We'll miss it, but don't forget to GO FOR IT!

SOCCER

Anyone who attended a Melrose High Soccer game this year knows that the Raiders were there to play. With aggressive moves and hustle in every game, they never gave up. The highlight of the season was the 2-1 victory over Lexington, a victory which sparked a fierce rivalry. Bill Denning proved to be the high scorer, while Captain Tom Murphy was chosen most valuable player. Murphy and Denning were also named to the Middlesex League All Stars Team. Kenny Wells, voted the most spirited, never stopped supporting the team, on or off the field: Even though the record was 7-10-1, the Raiders maintained their high morale and spirit of sportsmanship. David Auld breaks through the line

The 1979 football season was a frustrating one for the team and coaches. After a slow start, in which the squad suffered three disappointing losses, the Raiders came back with renewed spirit, nearly beating eventual super bowl champion Woburn. The Red Raiders proceeded to win four of the last six games in a strong finish. The highlight of the season was a 28-6 victory over the number one ranked team in the state, Winchester. It was a total team effort which saw the Raiders completely dominate the highly touted and previously unbeaten Sachems. This victory also marked the 200th career win for legendary Coach Hoague.

The 1979 football team was largely comprised of seniors, 24 in all, led by Middlesex League All-Stars: Dave Leary, Captain Mike Timmons, and Tim Hickey, who gained a total of over 1,000 yards. Other senior starters included Carl Sharrio, Dean Antonucci, "Crazy" Dave Auld, Steve Morris, Steve Shea, John Polcari, Dan Puleo, Alan Dudley, Steve Brandano, Mark Eldridge, Steve Keohane, and Tony Karelas.

Everyone on the team contributed to its success. The players got along well together, and had many good times that they will always remember. And despite the feeling that they should have done better than a 4-6 season, the Raiders learned to work together as a proud team and had a lot of fun - which is what it's all about!

FIELD HOCKEY

Captain Lisa Schmidt and Coach Johnston.

The 1979 field hockey team, led by captain Lisa Schmidt, had one of the best seasons in MHS history. The hard work of the team, combined with the very vocal support of the many fans who cheered them on, produced a year successful not only in terms of a regular season win-loss record, but also in post-season State Tournament play. The experience gained in this year's tournament games will certainly be extremely valuable as next year's team prepares for an equally successful season.

It was a slow start for the MHS x-country team. The first day 7 miles, the second day 9 miles . . . The team of mostly rookies lost their first meet, 24-31, to Reading who had already started peaking. Melrose had won a few and with a record of 4-1 we now had to face undefeated Lexington, who had not lost to Melrose in six years. The outcome was 27-28 Melrose. Now 6-1 we had to face Woburn whose only loss was Lexington. The runners knew the outcome of this race would decide which team would share the League Championship with Lexington. They started fast and hard, they wanted it. With about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile left in the race, Coach McIntyre tallies the score to 25-30 Melrose leading. The outcome was a sad one, a Melrose loss. Through the coaching of Head Coach Bob McIntyre, Assistant Coach Ed Ferreira and Co-Captains Mark Lamattina and Jim Mahoney, they fought together, they worked together, they won together, and they shared sadness from defeat together.

The Melrose High School golf team played par for the course this year, finishing with a record of 4 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie. The team played its home matches at Bellevue Golf Course in the fall. Michelle Bell, the only girl on the team, proved herself to be a tough competitor and a very good golfer. Another fine golfer, John Caruso, finished second in the Middlesex League Tournament. The only senior on the team this year was Andy Lickly.

The Melrose High Wrestling Team went undefeated to win the Middlesex League Title for the third consecutive year. In non-league competition the team compiled a 12-4-1 record and came in fourth in the Northern Area Sectionals. The team placed fourth in the Lowell Tournament while Tom Rooney came in second. Captain Tom Lynch, Tom Rooney, Jon Green, Jim Ball, Steve Leonard, and Doug Green each reached the State Tournament. Next year the wrestlers are sure to miss Tom Lynch, Tom Rooney, Tom Morris, Tom Gowing, Ken Wells, Jon Green and Bill Bornstein, who helped to make the championship possible. The team remembers Billy B's big finish in Wakefield, "who turned out the lights", and the wrestlers from New York with their robes and flags.

HOCKEY

Coach H. Hughes, Captain Michael Timmons,
Assistant Coach W. Tryder

Captain Michael Timmons and Coach Hughes led the MHS hockey team to an impressive 9-5-2 season which placed them fourth in the competitive Middlesex League. The team's late season attempt for a place in the state tournament fell short as the Raiders were defeated by Burlington 4-3, after winning five games in succession.

The highlight of the season was the hard earned 3-2 win by Melrose against second place Lexington.

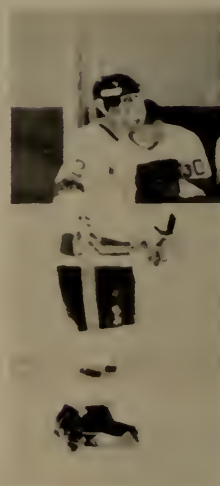

Individuals deserving recognition are the Middlesex League All-Stars Michael Timmons, Donny McCoy, Timmy Reilly and Don Muse, who was also the leading Middlesex League Division I scorer for the 1979-1980 season.

Experience — that was what the 1980 MHS basketball team strove for and gained throughout the season. Consisting of three sophomores and seven juniors the team tried to overcome their "rookie" errors. Both Coach Johnston and the team believe that "81" should be a year which will make all their work worthwhile. With all players returning, the future looks rewarding for the MHS girls' basketball squad.

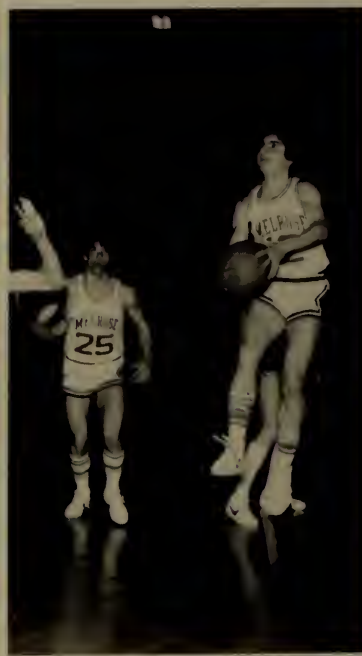

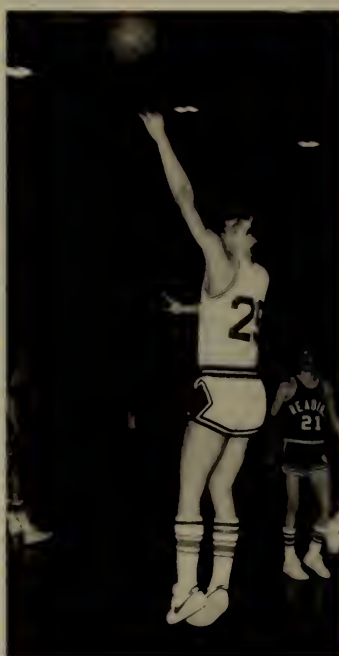

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Led by Co-Captains Tony Karelak and Greg Strileckis, this year's Raider basketball team finished with a much-improved 7-13 record. Seniors Jay Buckley, Steven Keohane, David Leary, and Carl Sharrio played solid games which was the result of long hard hours of practice. Juniors Bob Clifford, Dave Eichel, Bill MacIndewar, Tom Prior, and Shawn Wise along with sophomores Bill Donovan and Richard Lynch rounded out this year's team and hold the promise that next year's team will be strong.

Players and fans alike agree that the season's most memorable game was a 50-47 defeat to league-champions Woburn. The Raiders scrapped and hustled throughout the game only to be denied a victory in the final seconds. This game epitomized this year's team. It was a group which always hustled and never let down until the final buzzer.

The '79-'80 swim team, headed by co-captains Phil Surette and Tom Lowery, successfully completed its season with an 11-2 overall record that gave them second place in the Middlesex League. Behind the strategy of Coach Grant, the boys swam to a tenth place finish in the Northeast Sectionals.

The memories that will last . . . long hard hours of practice . . . shaving down for the big meet . . . the tough loss to Belmont for the jackets, but the great win over Lexington. The team will suffer the loss of senior co-captains Tom Lowery and Phil Surette, and Peter Kodzis, Mike Regan, Scott Burne, John Musto and Rick Silva. These seniors wish next year's team continued success. Thanks Coach Grant.

After a 7-2 cross country season the M.H.S. Winter Track Team was ready to go. After an O and 9 season last year the team was out to prove that they were better than that. First up was Reading which started the team with a loss, but Reading is always tough. Next up was Stoneham and with the confidence of coaches Mr. McIntyre, Ed Ferreira and Captain Mike Maccario the team managed to pull through with a relatively easy victory. Then they took three straight; Burlington, Belmont and Watertown. The final meet was a close loss to Wakefield. There were good performances at the Harvard State meet. The season closed with a 4-5 record. Hey Mike have you seen Lama?

THE LATE AFTERNOON PROGRAM AT NORTHEAST METROPOLITAN REGIONAL VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

The Northeast Regional Vocational School, better known as "The Voke," offers a special educational opportunity to several fortunate Melrose High Students. They pursue their academic courses at MHS in the morning, then they board the bus at 2:25 PM for the brief trip to "The Voke." There, they study one of a number of vocational education courses, in preparation for entry level employment in the trade of their choice.

Four of the members of the class of 1980 will graduate from this special program. They include David Csicsek (Drafting and Design), Phil Constantino and Bill Groark (Electricity), and Donald Daley (Plumbing and Pipefitting).

Gentlemen, we wish you luck!!

IN MEMORY OF
MARTHA QUINN
1962 - 1976

A sepia-toned photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, a light-colored, sandy or dirt path leads from the bottom center towards the middle ground. The path is flanked by dense, dark vegetation, possibly bushes or small trees. In the background, a range of hills or mountains is visible under a pale, overcast sky. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

The Road goes ever on and on Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And wither then? I cannot say.

— J. R. R. Tolkien

The background of the page is a sepia-toned photograph. It depicts a forest floor with a light-colored, sandy or dirt path that curves from the bottom left towards the center. The path is surrounded by dense, dark foliage, including trees and bushes, which are out of focus. The lighting is soft, creating a moody atmosphere.

TOMORROWS

With or without time,
We continue to wait for tomorrow;

A time for hopes fulfilled
And dreams lost;

A time for wandering and wondering,
Of wishing and weeping;

Never must we lose that faith
Which lets us hope for happier days;

And we must remember to dust
Off destiny now and then,

For the blanket of fate
Comes quick and sure.

And one by one, its particles cover all
And remains only visible, to days past.

OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION

Although most of our class of 489 students attend Melrose High from 8:00-2:30, there are some who choose to participate in the Occupational Education programs at M.H.S.

These programs are designed to enable students to prepare themselves to enter vocations directly after their graduation from high school.

One of the many programs is the Patient Care Technician Program. This program, organized by Mr. John Hughes, is designed to facilitate the students' entrance into health professions via training at the Melrose-Wakefield Hospital.

Cosmetology, another alternate program, requires that students complete 1,000 training hours in a two-year period at the Melrose Beauty Academy.

Cooperative education, another program under the supervision of Mr. Hughes, provides students with working experience using skills obtained in business and other vocational courses taken during their high school careers.

And last, but certainly not least, are the Northeastern Regional Vocational School students. These students arrive at school at 10:42 AM and leave M.H.S. at 2:20 PM to attend classes at the Voke until 5:40 in the afternoon. Upon their graduation from the Vocational School they are qualified to do work in their chosen technical or mechanical field. As is apparent, Melrose High School not only caters to its students destined for college, but also prepares those students who will enter a vocation after graduation.

Halloween Party '79

Two Wild and Crazy Guys

Down Melrose Street and through the parking lot they came on that night of October 29th, providing a sight which appeared strange indeed to those who were innocently passing by. No, not an invasion of aliens from a distant planet; simply the Class of 1980 gathering for MHS's annual Halloween Party. Inside the school, the Cafetorium was filled with nearly three hundred cleverly disguised seniors, ready for an evening of "fun and games" as well as prizes, which were awarded by the honorable panel to those seniors whose costumes were judged "outstanding" in any of a number of categories.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Melrose High School played host to over 500 senior citizens of the community at the Annual Charity Christmas Party held Wednesday, December 13, from 1 - 3:30 in the cafetorium.

Guests were served a tasty hot lunch by student and faculty helpers, who worked together with Mrs. James and the cafeteria staff. Newly elected school committeeman Gene McCarthy donned an apron and pitched right in to help. Guests were served beverages at their tables by student helpers. They savored the beautifully decorated cookies prepared by Mrs. Dexter's foods classes.

Mayor Milano arrived when the entertainment began and commented about the nice relationship between young and old in Melrose. The MHS Brass Ensemble, under the direction of Frank DeGiacomo led off with some peppy numbers. Soon Master of Ceremonies Anthony J. LaRosa, Assistant Principal, who coordinated the event with Student Activities Advisors Melanie Romano and Robert Hassett, took charge and awarded doorprizes to the lucky guests holding winning numbers. Over seventy gifts had been donated by organizations and businesses in the community. Each guest received a favor prepared by the Campfire Girls of Melrose. A handmade afghan was given to the guest at the party having the most children and grandchildren.

First on the program were the Modern Dance Club members Lisa Limongelli and Rhonda MacPherson, who presented "Disco Break". Trisha Keegan, Nancy Crovo, and Terry Donovan, dressed in polka-dot bloomers, danced to "Bandstand Boogie." Mary and Cathy Lewis interpreted "Enough is Enough" as club advisor Gale Puntoni proudly looked on.

The girls were followed by Special Guest Dannie Ventola, who mesmerized the audience with his versatile repertoire of sentimental Italian and upbeat popular songs.

The MHS Chorus, under the direction of Joseph Messina, presented several choral works, concluding with the popular "Drummer Boy."

The German Club Dancers, introduced as "straight from the Hofbrau Haus in Munich," danced three numbers in traditional costume.

Everyone enjoyed the appearance of Santa Claus, played by staff member Paul Panasuk, who enthusiastically greeted guests and sneaked a few kisses from the ladies.

The program concluded with the entertainment of banjo-playing teacher and favorite Jimmy Morse, whose "Old Songs Game" was well-received by the audience. Morse, decked out in silver bow tie and red vest for the occasion, stumped all but a few with his lead-ins for "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" and "Wait 'til the Sun Shines, Nellie" and relied on the assistance of student bell-ringer Ellen Cain to produce "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

So many students were caught up in the enthusiasm generated by the program.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF . . .

"The Long and Winding Road" is "Still The Same" as you walk to school, which by no means could be called "The Stranger." Realizing that "Minute By Minute" it's getting later, you ask "Does Anyone Really Know What Time It Is?" You know you should hurry, but you continue to stroll along because that's "Just the Way You Are". "Running On Empty" you climb "The Stairway to Heaven," sometimes referred to as the third floor. The announcements go right over your head because it's "Monday Morning." Walking down the hall, a teacher yells "Take It Easy" to the boys tackling each other, but "The Kids Are Alright." You know the only way you'll make it through the day is with "A Little Help From Your Friends."

The Physics teacher knows that you didn't do your homework because you can't hide those "Lying Eyes." Thinking "Why Me" you go to study to "Dream On" to find some "Sanctuary." When the bell rings your mind says "Stay, Just A Little Bit Longer" but you know that "You Must Be Moving On." When the teacher asks you why you're late, your only answer is "I Musta Got Lost."

With "Anticipation" you go to Analysis to see how you did on yesterday's test. "This Is It," you look at the paper. Oh well, "You Can't always Get What You Want", besides "2 Out of 3 Ain't Bad". Feeling courageous, you decide to "Take A Chance" and ask the teacher if you can take a make-up. His reply is "Enough Is Enough", Learn to "Get It Right The First Time."

Finally, lunch arrives and it's time for feed bags. The number of milks on some of the boys' trays makes you believe that you have "Double Vision." "Even Now" after having eaten your sandwich, you are hungry, "Still". Walking out of first lunch, it's rough "Stayin' Alive" because second lunch is "Stumbling In."

English is next, too bad "You Can't Change That" but you just have to "Let It Be." The English teacher informs you that you have to memorize the "Famous Final Scene". Moaning "Help" you sink "Lowdown" in your chair, but the bell causes you to "Rise." Passing a friend in the hall you yell "Wait For Me" after school. Going to gym you have a "Peaceful Easy Feeling" because you know you'll be a "Big Shot" on the volleyball court. It seems like a "Long Run" from the locker room to the gym because the stairway is as "Cold As Ice." Finally the 2:30 bell rings and you're a "Freebird" ready "To Go Your Own Way." Takin the "Long Way Home" with your friends you remember "The Way We Were."

After graduation, the empty school grows quiet with the "Sounds of Silence" and looking back you'll say "We May Never Pass This Way Again", but I'm off to find "My Life."

THE BATTLE

It begins with a fear
And a need to learn
We search for the answers
And anxiously await our turn.

Instead of getting easier
The pressure seems to stay
Yet we carry on anticipating
The glory of our graduation day.

As seniors we dream constantly
Of our future and our careers
And we dream of all of the good times passed
Throughout our high school years.

As graduation approaches us and we realize that we have won
Now that the battle's over
We've only just begun.

— Roberta Arena
